

Please finish reading “The Necklace” in your text books. Continue the highlighting exercise that we worked on in class, for the rest of the story. If you were absent, see details below.

As you read Guy de Maupassant’s short story “The Necklace,” highlight words dealing with wealth and beauty in orange and highlight words dealing with poverty and homeliness in yellow.

If you need to use 2 different color highlighters because you don’t have orange or yellow, that is fine.

You will use this homework for an in-class assignment, so please read carefully.
