

Momentum and Impulse

Problem.

A wedge is placed on a frictionless table. It has mass  $M$  and height  $H$ . A frictionless block of mass  $m$  slides down the wedge. Find the velocities of the block and the wedge after the block reaches the frictionless table.  $G$  is the gravitational constant.

