1. Draw the electric field line distribution for the case of two positive point-like charges separated by a distance L.

2. Four equal magnitude but different polarities charges, Q, are located in the corners of a square with sides L. Find the electric field strength at the center O.