

Review Problem

The picture below shows a track with a loop. Find the minimal height  $H$  (with respect to the top point of the loop), from which an object has to be released so that it stay on the track. The radius of the loop is  $R$ . The object slides on track without friction.

Hint: remember that centripetal acceleration is  $a=v^2/R$ .

