

Homework 2.

Problem.

A transparent glass plate is placed between the eye of the observer and a point source of light. Using pencil and ruler plot the position of the light source as it is seen by the observer.

