Using your notes from last week's class answer the following 5 questions:

If you did not take notes, I also sent a Google.doc with notes to everyone's Schoolnova.org emails titled - 5 paragraph essay example.*

1. What is the name of the first paragraph of an essay?
2. What should you include in your thesis statement?
3. Aside from the first paragraph and the last paragraph of an essay, what do we call the other paragraphs?
4. Can a thesis statement be a fact?
5. If you could write an argument on any topic, what would it be? (There is really no wrong answer to this question EXCEPT you cannot argue that dogs are nicer than cats. Why? Because you can't prove your answer. You would have to support your argument with research that has already been done. Keep that in mind when answering this question. If you need help, ASK AN ADULT. I STRONGLY SUGGEST ASKING FOR HELP.)
